

★ IN THE ARMED FORCES ★

REUNION IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC—Seven Terre Haute men, in the armed service in the South Pacific, had their picture made a few weeks ago. In the group are, left to right: George Garrigus, chief electrician, U. S. N., 244 South Seventh street; Harry Toelle, Tech. Sergt., 103 South Thirteenth street; Lieut. Paul Pfister, U. S. N., aviation, 2340 North Tenth street; Roy C. Thompson, electrician first class, 624 Second avenue; Carl Cottrell, electrician first class, 3201 North Fifteenth and One-half street; Walter Tarvin, electrician first class, 1517 Third avenue, and Captain Robert L. Tilley, Hd. Sq., PMAW.

KNIFE PRESENTED TO THE U. S. MARINE CORPS by the Terre Haute Tribune being handed to Sgt. Gerald Waindell (right), a Leatherneck combat correspondent stationed "Somewhere in the Southwest Pacific," by Private First Class Joseph E. Wishin of South Bend, Ind., a Marine photographer.

—Official U. S. Marine Corps Photo.