

★ ★ BROTHERS IN SERVICE ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Loyd, 1601 Chestnut street, have two sons in the service. Pfc. Charles Loyd (left) is stationed at Fort Slocum, N. Y., and Pfc. Eddie Loyd Jr., (right) is at Camp Cook, California.

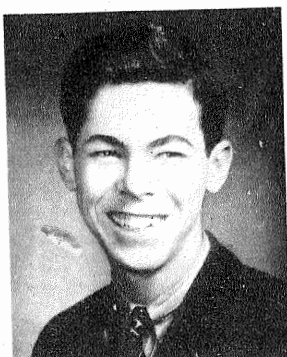

Pfc. Donald J. Peters (right) and Pvt. Charles Peters (left), sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Peters, 1218 North Water street, are both attached to the army air forces. Donald is stationed at Scott Field, Ill., and Charles is on duty at Berkeley, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli J. McCullough of 1805 South Fourth street have two sons in the service. Sgt. Garold McCullough (left) is at Fort Benning, Ga., and Elvis McCullough (right) is at Camp Kilmer, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bouillex, Fontanet, have two sons in service, Pvt. Arnold Bouillex, left, is stationed at San Fernando, Calif., and Pvt. James R. Bouillex, right, is at Fort Knox, Ky. Both are graduates of Fontanet High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Higgins, 1120 South Seventeenth street, have two sons in the service. Ray Higgins (left) is in the South Pacific area, and Howard Higgins, (right) is stationed at a Massachusetts air field.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell Poff of this city have two sons in the service. Seaman First Class Powell Poff, Jr., (left) is with the United States Pacific fleet. Pfc. William Poff (right) is stationed at Camp Haan, Calif.

106

John E. McKinney,
2111 N. 14 1/2 St.
In Italy.

Ben F. Crawford,
124 Adams St.
San Diego, Calif.

George W. Sims,
1919 Garfield Ave.
Fort Knox, Ky.

Michael J. Bigush,
1523 Ash St.
Fort Knox, Ky.

wide.

4557

05

2228

M. Schrader,
College Ave.
seas service.