

Corp. Joseph R. Sims, 1426 Barbour avenue, his wife and son, Joseph Jr. Corp. Sims is stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif.

FATHER MEETS SON on Indiana State Teachers College campus. Lieut. Col. Earl E. Weimar, regimental executive officer of the 33th Division, 151st Infantry, U. S. A., home on leave recently answered a snappy salute from a young sailor on North Sixth street and then, "Hi, dad, don't you recognize me in my uniform?" His son, Apprentice Seaman William Weimar, in the navy's V-12 training program at the college had just been issued his uniform on the previous day.

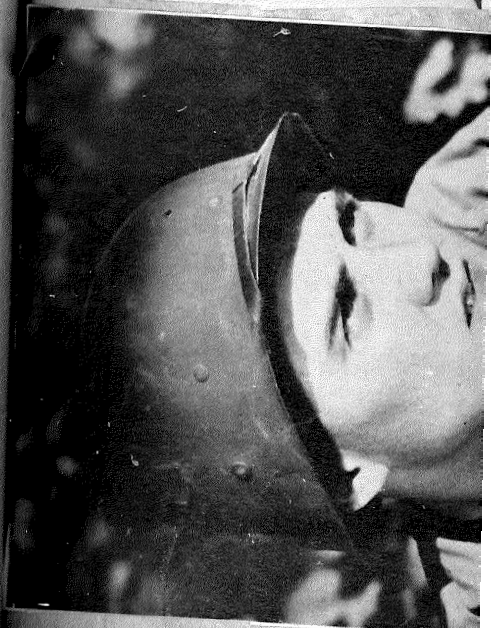

Pvt. Joseph S. Jones, husband of Mrs. Catherine Jones, 1215 South Eleventh street, and Aviation Cadet Robert W. Jones, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Jones, 825 North Eighth street.

Pfc. Thomas D. Little, son of Thomas Little, of East Glenn, is in the field artillery and has been located in New Guinea for some time.

BROTHERS IN THE ARMED FORCES

roll 30 inches wide.

1065 Group 4557

sidewall "Profess" 113

Border Number 4065 Group 1620

Border Code "Profit"