

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford W. Dickerson of Brazil, R. R. 2, have two sons in the service. Serg. Billy (left) is an aerial gunner at Pocatello, Idaho. Pfc. Jack (right) is in the heavy artillery. He has been in Panama but is now back in an American camp. Both are graduates of Glenn High School.

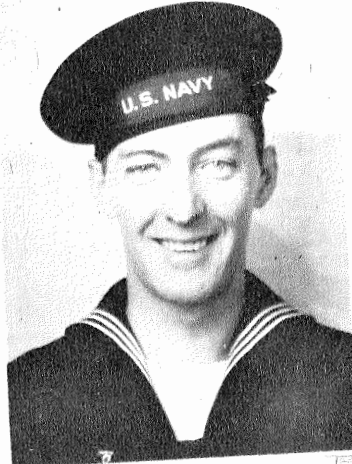

Harr

Wall

Sidew

Sidew

LADIES, DO YOU WANT TO GET YOUR MAN DURING LEAP YEAR—Jinx Falkenburg, cover girl and motion picture actress, while on a visit to the army air forces training command B-24 Pilot Transition School at Fort Worth, Texas, demonstrated one way. She used a grapple hook to capture Pfc. Romeo Yanez of South Bend, Ind. Pvt. Herman Luken of Terre Haute is trying to save his bachelor pal while Jeff Donnell, picture starlet, is helping Miss Falkenburg.

Bo

Bo

Three sons of Mrs. Roxie Taylor, 1461 South Tenth street, are serving in the United States armed forces. From left to right they are: Orell W. Taylor, ph. m. 2/c, stationed in Seattle, Wash.; William E. Taylor, sp. (1) 3/c, stationed at Great Lakes, Ill., and Sgt. Norman F. Taylor, stationed at Randolph Field, Texas. All are graduates of Pimento High School.

121

AT SPENCE FIELD, GA.—Second burg, Ind., who received his wings school, November 3, is shown in the ter, Carol Ann, on graduation day.

TO PARAPHRASE THE MA HYMN, it's from the banks of t bash to the southwest Pacific James H. Price, former marine here. Corporal Price, pictured muzzle, is somewhere in the Empress Bay area.

122