

★ ★ BROTHERS IN THE SERVICE ★ ★

Radioman 2c Albert C. Thralls (left), R. R. 1, West Terre Haute, is stationed in the British West Indies. His brother, Corp. Leo A. Thralls (right), is with the Army Air Corps in the European war theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hurst, 2930 Harrison avenue, have two sons in service—Corp. James V. Hurst (left), is serving in the army overseas. Chief Signalman Robert W. Hurst (right), is also in the navy.

Pvt. Roy P. Perdieu (left), 1200 South Twenty-fourth street, is stationed at Drew Field, Tampa, Fla. His brother, Sergt. Lloyd R. Perdieu, 1923 North Twenty-third street, is on overseas service. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perdieu, 1467 South Seventeenth

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Stubblefield, of Gilbert avenue, have two sons in service. Corp. Earle T. (left), is stationed at Camp Croft, S. C., being inducted May 1, and Corp. Tech. Eldon "Stubby," who entered the army June, 1942, and is somewhere overseas.

Soldier sons of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Barker, 1511 South Brown avenue, are Pvt. Kenneth M. Barker (left), Camp Cooke, Calif., and Corp. James F. Barker (right), who is on duty in Amchitka, Aleutian

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Elliott, 2604 Harding avenue, have two sons in the service—Corp. Kenneth A. Elliott (left), stationed in New York, and Pfc. Ervin C. Elliott, at Camp Livingston, La.

Edward VanBibber, 300 North Ninth street, has two sons in the armed services. Lieut. George VanBibber (left) is personnel officer and athletic officer of the naval training program at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. Major David VanBibber (right), is stationed at Patterson Field, O.

Staff Sgt. William G. Parsons and Pfc. John E. Parsons, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Parsons, of South Bend, formerly of Terre Haute, are serving in the armed forces. The former is in the army and is stationed at the Roswell Army Flying School, Roswell, N. M., and the latter is attached to the Signal Battalion of the U. S. Marine Corps at San Diego.