

OTHERS IN THE ARMED FORCES

These are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCombs, of 1231 North Section street, Sullivan, Ind. Sergt. C. Cottingham, Corp. James F., Pvt. Jack E. and their step-brother, Pvt. Robert V. McCombs. The boys are graduates of Sullivan High School.

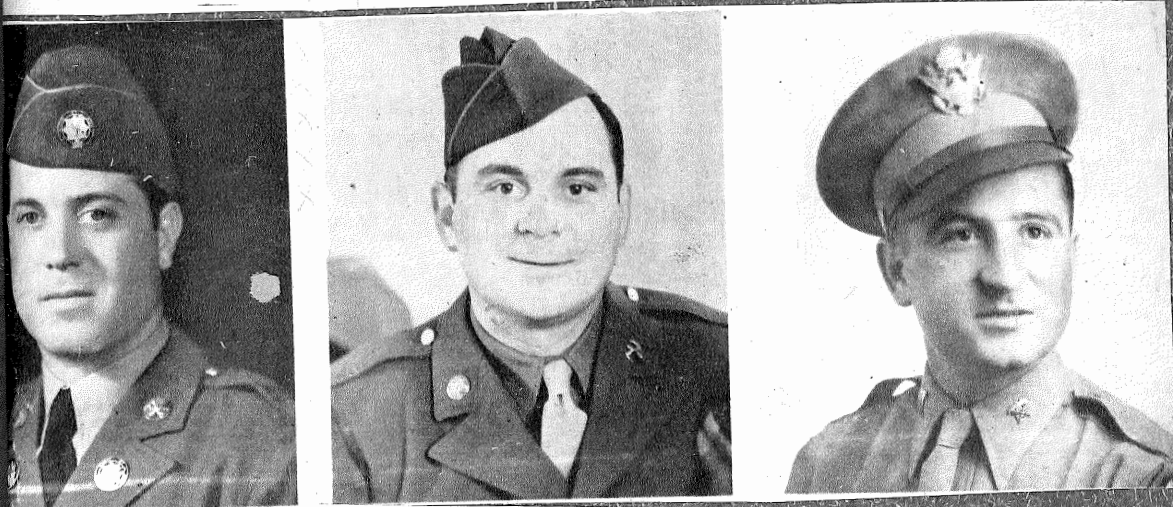

These are the four soldier sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCammon, of Farmersburg, are with the Army of United States in foreign fields. They are, reading from left to right: Sergt. Max McCammon, who is in Italy; Pfc. James and Pfc. Jack McCammon, both of whom are serving in South Pacific. The fourth, Pfc. Robert McCammon, is stationed at Camp Crowder, Missouri.

J. Eldred (left) and John Eldred (right) of 300 North avenue, are serving in the United States Army. John is in North Africa, while John is in Sicily.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cianteo, 1339 North Twenty-eighth street, have two sons in the service. Corp. John M. Cianteo, an aviation cadet stationed at Gulfport Field, Miss., and Pfc. Paul P. Cianteo, U.S.M.C., in the South Pacific area.

Mrs. Eva Kemery, R. R. 1, Lewis, Ind., has three sons in service. They are T/4 Ramond Kemery, a cook with a fighting unit in Italy; Pvt. James R. Kemery, who is taking radio training at Ft. Sill, Okla., and Lieut. Harold C. Kemery of the Army Air Forces stationed at Muroc, Calif.