

James W. Simpson
1933 North 11th St.
Pacific theater.

Clarence Hill
2216 North 28th St.
in New Britain.

Gene Foxworthy
R. R. 5, Terre Haute
in Australia.

Lawrence G. McCormack
1230 Poplar St.
at Modesto, Calif.

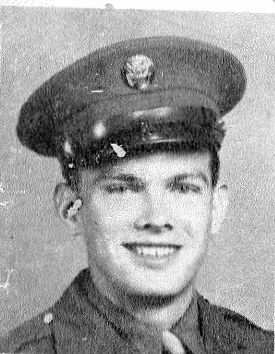

Cpl. James Collins
West Terre Haute
in Florida.

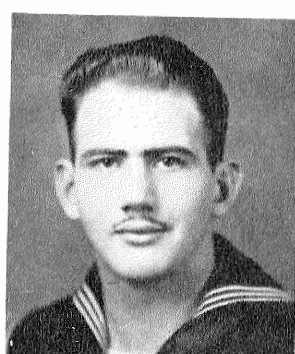

Cadet George Kassis
610 South 19th St. at Kingman, Ariz.

BROTHERS IN SERVICE

Lt. Gilbert L. Brown (left) is now serving in a noted tank battalion stationed in England. Cadet Louis E. Brown (right) is at Freeman Field, Seymour, Ind. He served 20 months at sea with the coast artillery before transferring to the air corps. Both boys are former Trib carriers and sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown at 2211 Buckeye street.

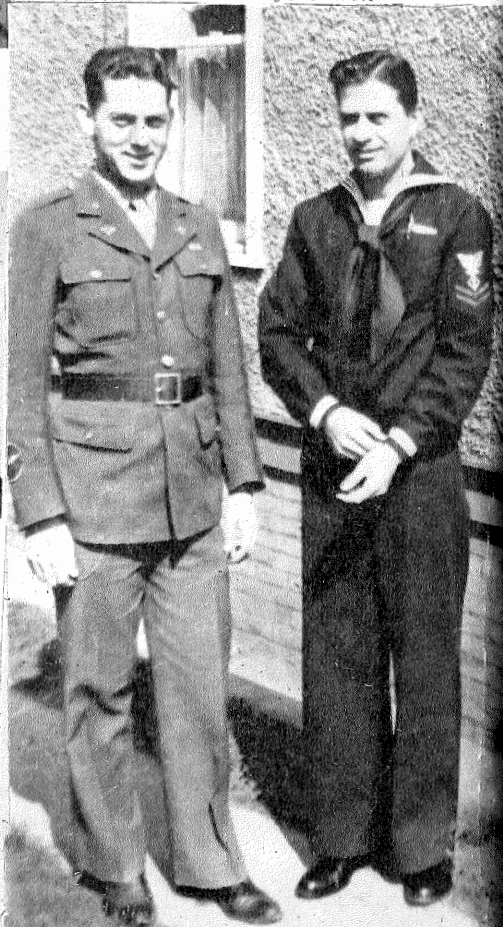

Cpl. John Winniski
2040 North 28th St.
in England.

S1/c Eugene C. Butts
2004 North 14th St.
Southwest Pacific.

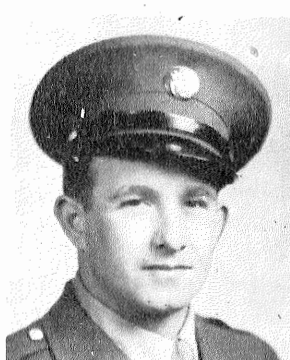

Arthur L. Lowe
R. R. 2, Terre Haute
in the Atlantic.

Lt. James I. Stultz and Spe. 1/c Petty Officer W. Wayne Stultz, sons of Mrs. Sadie Stultz, R. R. 3, Clinton. Lt. James I. Stultz stationed on the west coast and Spe. W. Wayne, Washington, D. C.

Glenn R. Thompson
Cass, Ind.
at Bremerton, Wash.

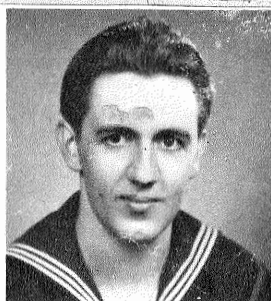

Don Cline
Marshall, Ill.
in Hawaii.

Wendell L. Compton
1519 Chase street
at Camp Croft, S. G.

Pvt. Randolph Brumfield, 300 South Fifteenth street (left) is in the United States Army and is in overseas service. His brother, Mo. M.M. 1/c James Brumfield, 1425 Poplar street (right), is stationed in San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Youmans, 709 South Third street, Clinton, Ind., have two sons in the service. A/C Max L. Youmans (left) is stationed at Ellington Field, Texas. A/C Dale Youmans (right) is stationed at Independence, Kan.

147

TERRE HAUTAN IN THIS CREW—Second Mrs. Manford W. Harris, of Terre Haute, (sitting) in the Fortress crew.

BAND EQUIPMENT
Lieut. Billy W. Harris, of Terre Haute, through the organizing and the result—a