

Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Caserotti, R. R. 2, West Terre Haute, have two sons in the service. At the left is Pvt. John Caserotti. He is now in the Pacific area. At the right is Pvt. Louis Caserotti. He is now stationed at Camp Grant, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rhea, 2016 North Thirteenth and One-half street, have two sons in service. They are Pfc. William E. Rhea, who is attached to the ordnance division of the army, now overseas, and Seaman First Class Frank E. Rhea, serving with the Seabees at Davisville, R. I.

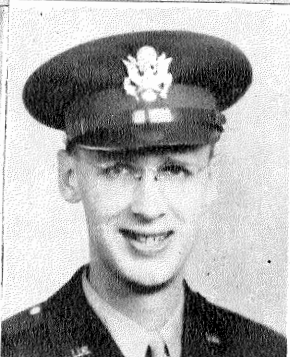

Serving in the navy, but separated by a continent, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watkins, 2625 Dillman street, MM 1 c Harold F. Watkins, who is on duty with the Atlantic fleet, and M 2 c Roy Watkins, who is attached to forces in the Pacific fleet.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Johnson, 1467 South Eleventh and One-half street, have two sons serving in the armed forces. They are Sgt. Howard Johnson, an infantryman, stationed in Australia, and H. A. 2-c Ruel Bernard Johnson, who is in the navy at sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCann, former Terre Hauteans, have two sons in the armed forces: Danny McCann (right) gunner's mate 3/c, at sea, and Jay McCann (left) an aviation cadet at San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Duncan of Dugger, Ind., have two sons in the U. S. Navy. Bill Duncan (left) and Rex E. Duncan are both in the Pacific area.

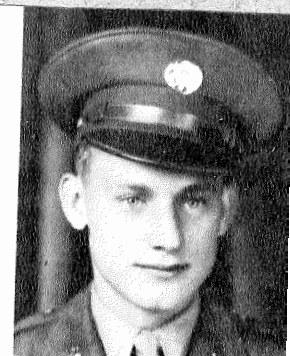

Two sons of Mrs. Schobert, 1411 South Eleventh street—Second Class Seaman Charles M. Schobert (left) and his brother Froman P. Schobert (right) are serving the nation. Charles is in the United States Navy while Froman is serving in the merchant marines.

Sons of Mrs. Marie L. Pearce of Port Clinton, O., who formerly resided here. Lieut. Jack R. Pearce (left) is attached to M. D. R. P., Station Hospital, Camp Forrest, Tenn. Lieut. Bert L. Pearce (right) is assistant planning officer at Norfolk Navy Yards at Portsmouth, Virginia.

Cpl. Peter Petrowsky, now serving somewhere in Georgia, and their one-year-old son, Peter Anthony, at 1428 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Piker have two sons serving in the signal corps of the Army of the United States. They are Sgt. Joseph Piker, (right) who is a radio repairman in Australia and Sgt. Robert Piker, (left) a radio operator at Camp Crowder, Mo.