

Cpl. Peter Petrowsky, now serving somewhere in England, is pictured here with his wife, Georgia, and their one-year-old son, Peter Anthony. Mrs. Petowsky and Peter Jr., reside at 1428 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cook of North Terre Haute have four sons in the service. They are Cpl. Noble Cook, Pvt. William Cook, Clarence Cook, S 1/c, and Lester Cook, S 1/c. They have all served three years except Lester who is serving his second. They all are at present serving in the European theater of war.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Piker have two sons serving in the signal corps of the Army of the United States. They are Sgt. Joseph Piker, (right) who is a radio repairman in Australia and Sgt. Robert Piker, (left) a radio operator at Camp Crowder, Mo.