

SOME OF OUR BOYS in the armed service. Reading left to right: Charles J. Wells of 1420 South Eleventh and One-half street is at Camp McCain, Miss.; Lieut. Ray K. Bolinger of 1435 Lafayette is in the Pacific area; Lieut. Gerald J. Pagliero of Clinton is at Great Bend, Kan.; Harry L. Richard of 219 South Thirteenth street is at Fort Sill, Okla.; Sgt. Jack Murphy is at Keesler Field, Miss.; Sgt. George E. Montgomery of R. R. 6, Terre Haute, is at Camp McCain, Miss.; William Kirchner of 1542 Fourth avenue is in foreign service, F 2/c Joe Melcho of 505 South Seventeenth street is in the navy, and Pfc. Harry H. Laver of 1320 South Third street is in England.

James Lloyd Bailey, son of Mrs. Lena Bailey, 710 Poplar street, enlisted in the U. S. Navy on June 16, 1941.

Mr. Jesse Holler, R. R. 7, Terre Haute, has two sons in service. Seaman 2nd Class E. Holler is attending radio school at the University of Madison, and Lieut. Wallace E. Holler is stationed at Camp Bowie, Tex.