

Lieut. Fred Milam
In the Far East.

Lester Milam
at Albuquerque, N. M.

Fred Ernest Mobley
at a Naval Air Base.

Dick Alexander, son of Mrs. Ruth E. Tierce, of Brazil, is with the U. S. Army and is now overseas in Australia.

1st Lieut. Earl A.
MacBride, at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Seaman Robert Lippeatt
in the South Pacific.

Robert G. Harris
in the U. S. Navy.

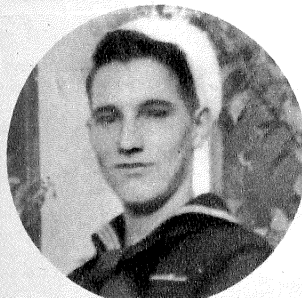

Malcolm E. Haines
at Camp Shelby, Miss.

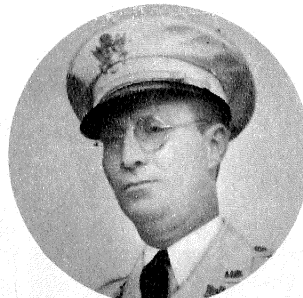

James Galloway
with the Coast Guard.

Ted Schlosser
3rd class yeoman.

Ernest L. Steward
in the U. S. Navy.

Capt. Paul J. Ogden
in England.

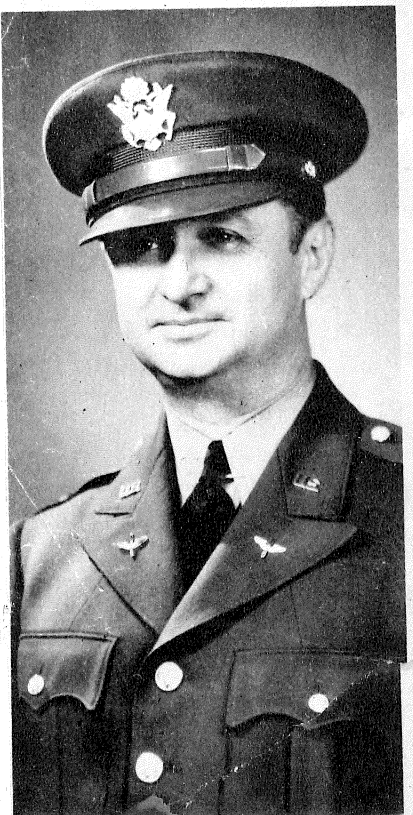

Harry W. Hughes
at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Pvt. William Nasser
in the Army Air Corps.

William M. Roberts
in the Canal Zone.

Joe S. Gifford, for the past twelve years connected with the Mid-Continent Company here, has been commissioned a captain in the U. S. Army Air Corps and has been assigned to a west coast air training center. During World War I he served as an instructor at Kelly Field, Texas.

Dora M. Scherr, 2424 North Fifteenth street, has three sons in the service. Pvt.
Charles Scherr (left) is at Camp Swift, Tex. Pvt. John R. Scherr (center) is in India. Cpl. Francis Tick Scherr is overseas.

Vernon E. Taylor,
1322 College Ave.,
Camp Breckenridge, Ky.