

Jack PERCH

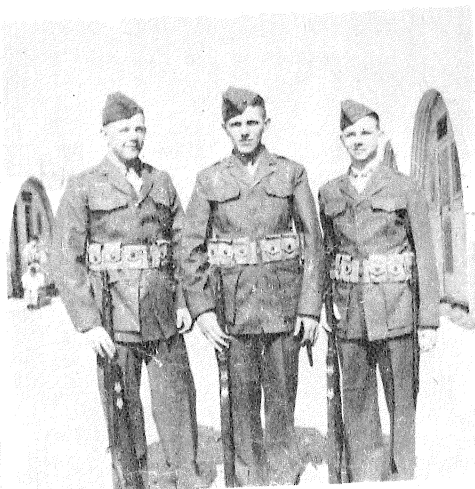

Above — William Mitchell, 1001 North First street, who served in the Forty-second Division in 1917-18 in the Argonne, Chateau Thierry and the St. Meheil drive.

Below—Vern Mitchell, his son, U. S. Marines, and now in service at San Diego, Calif.

NOW IN THE SIGNAL CORPS—Left to right: James Edward Allen, Charles Roberts and Victor Johnson, all of West Terre Haute, and Kenneth Kinman, R. R. 3, Terre Haute. They are now in the signal corps, and are in training at Fort Monmouth, Red Bank, N. J.

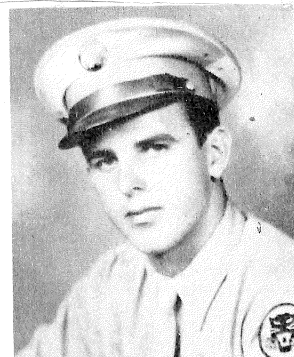

LEFT TOGETHER, STILL TOGETHER—(Left to right): Jack Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, 435 Farrington; Howard Grigsby, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Grigsby, 425½ South Center street, and Ray Mahalek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mahalek, 929 North Center street, joined the Marines on Jan. 6 and are still united at Quantico, Va.

LIEUT. HORNUNG ON THE JOB—First Lieut. Rahe O. Hornung, of Terre Haute, is pictured at his desk at Gulfport Field, Miss. He is adjutant of the 330th Air Base Squadron.

William R. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, of North Terre Haute, is 2nd class hospital apprentice at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Jack M. Robbins, Sullivan, Ind. Camp Hood, Texas.

Woodrow W. Sutton, of Jasonville, Ind. At Fort Lewis, Wash.