USES SKILL IN ARMY—Damage to base telephone wires (right) caused by sleet and snow set the scene for this picture at Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Sergt. Raymond G. Sebell (left) and Technician 4th Grade Carl R. Bundy, Signal Corps linemen, are shown testing separate lines after making repairs following a sleet storm. Bundy, a signal corpsman, who has nearly three years' service, is the son of Ella Bundy, of this city, and a former student of Gerstmeyer Tech.

Mrs. Anna C. Crowley, 1616 South First street, has three sons in the service. William T. Crowley (left) is with the navy at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Seaman Second-class George E. Crowley (center) is also at Great Lakes, and Lieut. Albert E. Crowley (right) is stationed at Bucyrus, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cramer, of Sullivan, Ind., have three sons in the armed services. Pvt. Merle Cramer (left) in overseas duty; Pvt. George H. Cramer (center) stationed in California, and Pvt. Lloyd (Chig) Cramer (right) who is overseas. George is the husband of Armeta Wise Cramer, and Lloyd is the husband of Arlie Riggen Cramer.

SOUTH OF THE BORDER — Raymond Scott, Golden Gloves bantamweight champion voted outstanding boxer in the 1942 Golden Gloves tournament here, is now serving in Uncle Sam's Navy and recently has been stationed in South America.